

The mixing colours are shown on the circle at the position that corresponds with the following properties:

- colour area: the colour area that corresponds with the mixing colour
- the colour direction; more to the left or right of the colour area
- saturation (cleaner or dirtier): further from or closer to the circle's centre
- complementary colours are positioned opposite one another on the circle

